

Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA) Statement

บริษัท ผลิตไฟฟ้า จำกัด (มหาชน)

Electricity Generating Public Company Limited

EGCO Group respects the privacy of the Company's stakeholders. The Company has in placed guidelines and mechanism to protect the personal information that the Company has collected, stored, used, and disclosed to other relevant third-party (if necessary). EGCO Group also embedded this system into group-wide risk/compliance management to ensure that the process of personal information is secure, reliable and complies with the Personal Data Protection Act B.E.2562 (2019).

EGCO group also informs our customers on the nature of information captured, the use of collected information, the period of time that the information is kept on the corporate files, the mechanism to protect the information. In addition, EGCO Group applies non-disclosure agreement with our third-party, both private and public entities and we have no policy to use our stakeholders' personal information for other purposes than specified. In case of any violations to privacy protection may result in a range of disciplinary actions in terms of both company's regulations and compliance.

Stakeholders and Customers are eligible to design how they prefer the data to be collected, used, retained, and processed. A consent is required prior to apply for any activities/transactions.

EGCO Group emphasizes the privacy and personal data protection by protecting the use of personal information from illegal use in accordance with the standards required by law. In addition, EGCO Group shall perform regular audit and review of the company's privacy protection process and mechanism to ensure the trust of information owners. The mechanism covers all of the Company's activities that dealing with personal information, which affects the Board of Directors, Executives, Employees, or Operators at all levels, along with the Company's business partners, business alliances, and relevant stakeholders of the EGCO Group.